our organics story...

Silly Billyz Organic Range was inspired by a passion to work together with Mother Nature to create quality products for your baby, which are soft, luxurious and importantly, earth friendly.

As a company, we feel a responsibility to make a transition to materials which are earth friendly. We want to complement our existing ranges with products which embrace natural organic cotton, to move towards a more sustainable future for our planet.

Organic cottons have many advantages over normal cotton. Apart from being extremely durable, they are beautifully soft against your baby's precious skin. No chemicals are used in producing certified organic products. This means only organic cotton and organic dyes are used so you have less chance of your bub developing nasty skin irritations. When you use any of the Silly Billyz Organics products you know you are wrapping your baby in the best. Silly Billyz Organics stay luxuriously soft and comfortable for as long as you need them.

Our Organic colour range is inspired by the natural beauty of New Zealand's South Island, from the majestic snow-capped mountains to the wealth of colourful botanical treasures. The fabrics are organically dyed with vivid colourings which are carefully extracted from selected fruits and vegetables.

Silly Billyz Organic products are perfection in form and function.

Earth friendly...Baby friendly.

biblet 0 – 2yrs +

Silly Billyz Organic Biblets are water resistant, soft and gentle against bubs delicate skin. The organic fabric is naturally grown without chemicals or pesticides, which reduces the chances of sensitive skin developing skin irritations and eczema.

Perfectly sized for newborns, this beautiful bib will keep babies dry and clean. The triple press stud closure means this bib will grow with your bub.

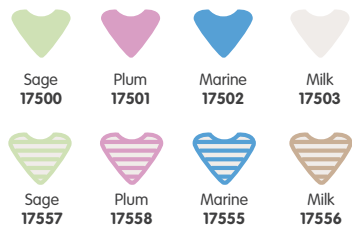

bandana bib 0 – 2yrs +

At last a gorgeous bib which doesn't cover up your bubs cute outfits.

Perfect for teething tots! This cool little Organic Bandana bib is water resistant, so it's ideal for dribbly bubs, who need to wear a bib most of the day.

Its neat size means it looks more like an accessory than a bib, and because it's organic, it is soft and luxurious against baby's skin.

plain bib 3mths – 3yrs +

The all-rounder. The fabulous Silly Billyz Organic Plain large bib has a double press stud closure to fit most sizes. The beautifully soft and luxurious organic cotton is more durable than regular cotton so will last longer. Perfect for bottle or breast feeding and for the messy first days of solids. Stain resistant too!
